

I am opposed to the ban being lifted that prevents a single company from owning newspapers and broadcast stations in the same market. I believe that a broad array of ownership and influence will be best for the american public.